The next edition of your Cal Surf News is now in production and will be published in the near future. Unlike our last edition when we attempted to rush into print, we have now taken a more careful approach to avoid some of the miscues of the last edition. To offer some teasers, this may be the issue of the sharks. We hope you'll find it all worth the wait.

We thank and congratulate all those who contributed especially our new writers. It is our ongoing goal to continue bringing in new voices to keep your magazine fresh and growing. For the most part, our articles will continue to be original work although in a few outstanding cases, we will include reprints. We trust that some of you who are here today will become the next group of first-time writers. We also understand that for many of you, there is not a great deal of time to spend writing and so we ask only that you provide us with some great action photographs. We accept emailed photos or hard copy and assure you proper credit and careful return of your photos. Thanks again to Renee Story for her typesetting, design and great patience.

We have expanded and updated our circulation list and hope this will improve the distribution of your magazine. We look forward to your participation in our committee meeting with ideas for the next edition of your magazine.

Listed below is the income and expense statement for this issue.
